Suggestions to Prepare for your Journey:

- Be sure to wear sunscreen, sunglasses and a sun hat, since Chaco Canyon is a very open and exposed landscape at high elevation.
- Be sure to drink lots of water on your journey.
- Bring a daypack for hiking and guided walks, a headlamp, and a thermal mug to enjoy your hot beverage at camp. Binoculars are also encouraged.
- Wear comfortable walking/hiking shoes to enjoy exploring the dirt hiking trails.
- Dress with layered breathable clothing, because New Mexico weather can change without much notice, and have a rain layer and light long sleeve layer to protect your skin during sunny days and cool nights.
- Pack your belongings in a durable, preferably hard, and compact suitcase/bag.
