Suggestions to Prepare for your Journey:

- Be sure to wear sunscreen, sunglasses and a sun hat, since Taos is a very open and exposed landscape at 7,000 feet of elevation.
- Be sure to drink lots of water on your journey.

- Bring a daypack, preferably a backpack, for easy transport of your personal belongings while hiking through the park. Binoculars are also encouraged.
- Wear comfortable walking/hiking shoes to enjoy exploring the dirt hiking trails.
- Dress with layered breathable clothing, because New Mexico weather can change without much notice, and have a rain layer and light long sleeve layer to protect your skin during sunny days and cool nights.
- Bring a pair of shower shoes, flip flops or a crocs style shoe, which can also serve as a pair of glamp tent shoes.
- A pack towel is recommended for your showers. We will provide biodegradable soaps for showering, but if you are bringing your own, please be sure they are biodegradable.
