- Dress with layered breathable clothing, because New Mexico weather can change without much notice, and have a rain layer and light long sleeve layer to protect your skin during sunny days and cool nights.
- Bring a pair of shower shoes, such as flip flops or a crocs style shoe, which will be great for enjoying your tent or walking to the shower.
- Pack a towel for your showers (we do provide a large beach towel for each guest). We will provide biodegradable soaps for showering but if you are bringing your own, please be sure they are biodegradable.
